

PRESSKIT #BTHVN2020

Ludwig van Beethoven (1770 - 1827)

Works for singer and ensemble

ARTIST

Ilker Arcayürek, tenor

Ludwig Chamber Players

violins: Kei Shirai (concertmaster) & Emily Körner

viola: Janis Lielbardis

violoncello: Gen Yokosaka

contrabass: Ryutaro Hei

clarinet: Dirk Altmann

bassoon: Hanno Dönneweg

horn: Wolfgang Wipfler

The other Beethoven - that could be the motto of our program concept. While the jubilee's popularity mainly stems from his symphonies, piano sonatas and string quartets, we pay attention to his lesser known compositions: songs, dances and chamber music. Even if these works are not at the center of his creative work, they still make a decisive contribution to the overall picture of the artist.

ABOUT

Austrian tenor Ilker Arcayürek has emerged as one of the most exciting and versatile vocal artists in recent years -hailed by the press for his golden tenor (Opera Now Magazine) and quickly establishing himself "in a class of his own" (The Guardian). He is a winner of the International Art Song Competition of Germany's Hugo Wolf Academy and was BBC Radio 3 New Generation Artist. Champs Hill Records released his first solo album "Der Einsame" featuring Schubert songs and accompanied by Simon Lepper in 2017 to great critical

The Ludwig Chamber Players (LCP) are known for their enthusiastic playing coupled with a captivating virtuosity. Their various musical influences (the musicians come from 7 different nations) contribute to the ensemble's outstanding interpretations. In addition to this Mozart CD, recordings of chamber music by Sergei Prokofiev as well as a CD of Ludwig van Beethoven's Septet have been released on the TACET label.
